MICHAEL F. EASLEY
GOVERNOR

CLEAN BEACHES WEEK

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Clean Beaches Council, as part of Great Outdoors Month, has designated June 29 through July 5, 2007, as National Clean Beaches Week; and

WHEREAS, individuals, communities and government have undertaken significant measures to keep beaches clean; and

WHEREAS, North Carolina is blessed with 320 miles of ocean beaches and more than 4,000 miles of estuarine shoreline, according to the N.C. Division of Coastal Management; and

WHEREAS, North Carolina beaches are the most popular tourist destination in the state and contribute significant resources to the local, state and national economy; and

WHEREAS, seventy-five percent of all recreational activity occurs within a half mile corridor around the shorelines of North Carolina's beaches, rivers and lakes, according to the N.C. Division of Tourism; and

WHEREAS, coastal tourism and healthy seafood fuels robust economies that sustain communities and support jobs along the North Carolina coast; and

WHEREAS the beaches of North Carolina are an integral part of the state's culture and natural heritage, as well as being critical to our $2.6 billion tourism industry, according to the N.C. Division of Tourism;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MICHAEL F. EASLEY, Governor of North Carolina do hereby proclaim June 29-July 5, 2007, "CLEAN BEACHES WEEK" in North Carolina, and I encourage all residents of the State of North Carolina to visit, enjoy and protect our greatest natural resource.
